AGRESTA, STORMS & O'LEARY, PC OPENS COLUMBUS OFFICE

October 8, 2014: Officials at accounting firm Agresta, Storms & O'Leary PC recently announced the opening of an office in Columbus, Indiana. The new office, which opened on October 1, enhances the firm's ability to serve its growing client base in south central Indiana by providing convenient access to trusted assurance, tax and business consulting expertise.

"From the very founding of our firm five years ago, we believed Columbus would be an excellent strategic and geographical fit for the types of services we provide to our clients in other markets throughout Indiana", said S. Shawwn Storms, a partner at Agresta, Storms & O'Leary. "Columbus has a long history of business innovation and entrepreneurship and we are excited to share our company's core values of continuously re-inventing processes, leveraging technology, embracing change and providing timely, quality service with the Columbus business community."

The office, located at 524 Franklin St. in Columbus, will be led by Rita Wilder, a manager who has been with the company since its inception. The Columbus office will work closely with the other Agresta, Storms and O'Leary offices to serve the firm's clientele throughout south central Indiana.

"Big firm, high tech sophistication and small firm, high-touch client service differentiates Agresta, Storms and O'Leary in the marketplace," commented Storms. "We've always made a strong pledge to providing personal, accessible service, and having an office in Bartholomew County really helps us further prove our commitment.

In 2013, Accounting Today magazine ranked Agresta, Storms & O'Leary as one of its top ten best firms in the United States to work for in the small firm category with the firm finishing 8th in its first year of entering the competition. The firm's four other offices are located in Batesville, Greensburg, Indianapolis and Martinsville.
